Subject: Tribal Concerns about the Reanalysis of Storage in Upper Baker
Date: Friday, March 07, 2003 2:17:07 PM

Col. Graves,

I just finished a phone call with Larry Wasserman from the Skagit System Cooperative. He noted that the tribes are concerned about sudden shift to looking at Upper Baker. He also expressed concern that the Corps would only look at the economic/flood benefits in making our recommendation and not at the potential environmental impacts. He will be following up this message with one of his own. I am just passing on this information as a heads up.
