MOUNT VERNON, WASHINGTON, MONDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1959

AT ANCHOR—The W. T. Preston, Army Engineer Corps snag boat which has been in Mount Vernon since Sept. 4, is slated to depart this area today or tomorrow. It is pictured at anchor beside the Moose Hall. The last stern wheel paddle steamer in the Puget Sound area, the Preston comes up the Skagit River at least once a year to keep the channel free.
