Special Acknowledgements:

The Skagit County Public Works Natural Resources Division would like to thank the members of the Skagit County Flood Control Zone District Advisory and Technical Committees (Dike and Drainage Districts, Environmental, and Land Use) for providing their valuable time and input during the process of updating this plan. It is greatly appreciated.

A special thank you is especially due to Larry Kunzler, Skagit County's Flood Historian, and his son, Josef Kunzler. Mr. Kunzler's historical contributions were significant and priceless, and his and his son's time spent compiling chapters six and seven is sincerely appreciated.

Thank you to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers for its continued effort with the Skagit River General Investigation. The Corps' draft Future Scoping Meeting – Read Ahead was a major contribution to the plan.

Also, the Division would like to acknowledge Snohomish County's Draft Public Review Stillaguamish River Comprehensive Flood Hazard Management Plan for its structure and valuable information.
