

THE MOUNT VERNON ARGUS

JANUARY 4, 1918

Str. Swinomish Sinks in Riverside Bend

The snag boat Swinomish sank in the Skagit river in the bend below the Interurban bridge Friday after grazing the bridge pier. Captain Fred Siegel said that in passing through the draw the boat touched the pier slightly. The men on the main deck reported no damage; but in a few minutes it was noticed that the boat was taking water. The pumps were immediately put to work but to no avail and the boat hit bottom with the upper works well out of water. Captain Siegel went to Seattle and re-